

trail map & mountain stats

www.sunlightmtn.com

Sunlight Mountain Resort offers hundreds of acres of mild green cruisers, intermediate slopes and black diamond extremes to satisfy skiers and boarders of all ability levels. Sunlight features an ever-expanding terrain park, 29 kilometers of groomed cross-country trails, back-country ski tours on adjacent Williams Peak, and snowmobile tours on the Sunlight-Powderhorn trail.

Sunlight Mountain Resort is nestled 10 miles south of Glenwood Springs and 30 miles northwest of Aspen in the heart of the White River National Forest. Call 1-800-445-7931 for snow reports, trail conditions and special events.

mountain stats

Elevation at base: 7,885
 Elevation at summit: 9,895
 Elevation of Glenwood Springs: 5,746
 Season: December 2, 2005 to April 2, 2006
 Hours of Lift Operation: 9 am to 4 pm daily Skiable Terrain: 470 acres
 Number of Slopes: 67
 Vertical Drop: 2,010 feet
 Annual Snowfall: 250 inches
 Cross-Country/Snowshoe Trails: 29 km

trail classifications

20% Beginner
 55% Intermediate 20% Advanced
 5% Expert
 Steepest Run: The Heathen, 52% pitch
 Longest Run: Ute Trail, 2.5 miles

lift systems

1 Triple
 2 Doubles
 1 Surface